Tonal Aspects of Languages Berlin

Call for Papers

The Sixth International Symposium on Tonal Aspects of Languages will be held in Berlin, Germany, from Monday, June 18 till Wednesday, June 20, 2018. TAL 2018 will be organized at Beuth University Berlin conveniently located in the city center close to all major attractions. TAL 2018 is timed after Speech Prosody 2018 in Poznań, Poland, June 13-16, only a three-hour train ride away.

TAL 2018 is supported by the International Speech Communication Association and the ISCA SProSIG.

The symposium will continue the tradition of the previous five symposia, aiming to present state-of-the-art research on the typological, phonetic, phonological, psycholinguistic, acquisitional, and technological aspects of tonal contrasts. We invite contributions from all these areas. Also welcome are contributions on non-tone languages and the use of tone in poetry or song.

Local organizers:

Hansjörg Mixdorff, Angelika Hönemann, Oliver Jokisch (HfT Leipzig), Petra Wagner (U. Bielefeld), Frank Kügler (U. Cologne)
